

SOUTH AMERICA MAY HAVE BALL

NATIONAL GAME OF THIS COUNTRY MAY BECOME PASTIME WITH SOUTHERN REPUBLICS, SAYS COMMERCIAL ATTACHE

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.—The baseball game is being carried to South America. The commercial attaché of the American legation at Lima, Peru, reported today that a baseball game between Americans from the Cora de Pasco mines and members of the exclusive club, Ciclista de Lima, was the big feature on the program arranged for the celebration of Peru's national holiday.

The first ball. The game "played at the foot of the Andes and in the shade of the tomb of Inca," as the West Coast leader phrased it, was hailed as the entering wedge for a baseball league in the southern hemisphere.

A movement is on foot in Peru and other South American countries, it is said to suggest to North American baseball magnates a tour of the South American republics similar to the recent Giants-White Sox trip around the world.

Illinois Shows Rennion Progressives and G.O.P.

(Herald Special Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The voters of Illinois in the primary election last Wednesday added their state to the rapidly growing list of those which have shown by actual voting a complete reunion of the republican and progressive forces. The vote for republican candidates, both in Chicago and down state, was by far the most impressive feature of the election.

In the city of Chicago the Republican vote was practically what it was before the 1912 break in the party ranks, while the total democratic vote fell off nearly 40,000. The 1912 democratic total vote was 158,853, while that of last Wednesday was 119,422. The down state vote made a similar showing.

The totals were so impressively favorable to the Republican cause this year that even the Chicago Examiner, a democratic paper and champion of Governor Dunne's re-nomination on the democratic ticket, remarked:

"Political statisticians hold the figures to indicate that the progressives again are lifting in the game with the republicans."

Colonel Frank O. Lowden, the republican nominee for governor, won the nomination in such an emphatic fashion that his opponents in the primaries were among the very first to send him congratulations and assure him of their warm support in the campaign for election.

Illinois republicans never were in better shape than now for a clean-cut campaign for the state and national tickets. Not a vestige of factional difference is left to mar the campaign.

On the other hand, the democrats had an eleventh hour effort made to defeat the re-nomination of Governor Dunne, a fight that has left considerable bitterness in the state ranks of the party. As a result, it is being predicted in political circles through the state that Illinois will return a republican plurality for the national and state tickets in November of 200,000.

The loss of voting strength, both in Chicago and down state, is keenly felt in democratic ranks, and the party leaders are trying to figure out ways and means of explaining away the shrunken vote.

more than Governor Dunne's total vote in the democratic column. Colonel Lowden beat Colonel Smith by 134,240.

In grand total the democrats ran 180,000 votes behind the republicans. Lowden, Hull and Smith totaled 388,104, while Dunne, Brinton and Traynor pulled in only 208,472.

Primary election returns from Colorado and Washington show that practically the entire progressive vote in those states were cast last Tuesday for the regular republican candidates.

The returns from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, and other Middle Western states, recently showed the progressives voting almost solidly with the republicans. The same thing was shown in the Illinois primary of Wednesday.

That the republican party is reunited all over the country is shown conclusively by these returns. Furthermore, in almost every state record votes are being cast. With a harmonized party whose members are going to the polls in record numbers to cast their votes republicans can read only certain victory in the coming November election.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS OCCASIONALLY IF YOU EAT MEAT REGULARLY

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a table spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive, and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

GRAVE DIGGERS GO ON STRIKE

BUENOS AIRES OFFICIALS TRY TO CUT PAY 8 PER CENT, BUT TERRIBLE SCANDAL WINS FOR THE GRAVE DIGGERS

United Press Service

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 25.—(By mail)—Strict orders were given today by the municipal government to the authorities at the Chacarita cemetery to take every precaution against another grave diggers' strike. The cemetery, the most fashionable burying ground in Buenos Aires, is under city control. As the city is financially embarrassed, the officials, as a measure of economy, recently withheld 8 per cent per month from the wages of employees, a delicate way of reducing pay without saying outright that it had been cut.

Strikes have resulted in various departments, particularly among the street cleaners; and in some cases the city won, and in others it lost and had to pay the 8 per cent. Finally the experiment was tried at the Chacarita cemetery. It was a mistake. The grave diggers quit forthwith, and there was a terrible scandal. The men won quickly, and they won't be cut in pay again.
